

We're seeking engaged, local leaders to join the Board of Commissioners for the Rutland Redevelopment Authority (RRA). If you're a resident, business owner, or property owner in the City of Rutland, you can help shape the future of our community by bringing your experience, perspectives, and energy to the board.

Why join:

- Play a pivotal role in revitalizing Rutland's economy, neighborhoods, and quality of life.
- Influence decisions on redevelopment projects, public-private partnerships, and long-term community planning.
- Collaborate with a diverse group of stakeholders committed to inclusive growth and sustainable development.

What we're looking for:

- Ownership or investment in Rutland property, or active business/entrepreneurship in the city. (Required)
- Knowledge of local economic development, housing, land use, or small business needs (preferred but not required).
- Strategic thinker with strong communication, collaboration, and problem-solving skills.
- Ability to commit time for two monthly meetings (2nd and 4th Tuesday mornings at 8:00 am), occasional retreats, and project-specific work.

Term and eligibility:

- Board terms are three years with eligibility for reappointment.
- Individuals must be residents of the City of Rutland or businesses/property owners with substantial Rutland interests.

How to apply:

- Complete the simple application (below) that includes a brief statement of interest outlining your ties to Rutland, relevant experience, and what you hope to contribute.
- Include a resume or bio and contact information.
- Email materials to: Sean Adkins, Executive Director (RRA), sean@rutlandvtbusiness.com

Selection process:

- Applications reviewed by current RRA members, the Mayor, and ultimately to be approved by the Board of Aldermen.
- New board members welcomed at an official meeting following a successful application.

Join us to help guide Rutland's redevelopment, preserve our community's character, and create opportunity for our neighbors. We look forward to hearing from you!
